2021 Gubernatorial Recall Election

- On July 1, 2021, the California Secretary of State announced the Gubernatorial Recall election date as Tuesday September 14, 2021.
- Consolidation with other elections (SB 152, adopted June 28, 2021):
 - (f) Notwithstanding any other law, if the Lieutenant Governor issues a proclamation calling a gubernatorial recall election, a district, city, or other political subdivision that previously called a special local election that has not yet been conducted for the submission of any question, proposition, or office to be filled may call that special local election to be consolidated with the gubernatorial recall election if all of the following conditions are met:
 - (1) The special local election was called prior to June 15, 2021.
 - (2) The original date on which the special local election was called is not more than 30 days before and not more than 30 days after the date of the gubernatorial recall election.
 - (3) The call to consolidate the special local election with the gubernatorial recall election is issued within four days from the date of the issuance of the Lieutenant Governor's proclamation.

Estimated 2021 Special Election Costs for the City of San Bruno

Estimated Election Costs?

Scenario 1: City Special Election Consolidated w/ Gubernatorial Recall Election

- This scenario is no longer viable.
- Cost cannot be determined due to the inability to consolidate a City Special Election that was not called prior to June 15, 2021 as per SB 152.

Scenario 2: Standalone City Special Election

- Approximately $421,000 - $505,000 for one ballot measure.
 - Based on a May 13, 2021 election services quote received from the San Mateo County Elections Division for a standalone City of San Bruno Special Election in November 2021 for one ballot measure.

Note:

The City of Belmont was quoted $681,600 - $817,920 on July 2, 2021 for a standalone special election in November 2021 for two ballot measures.
